vs.

CASE NO. 08CV2142
JURY TRIAL DEMANDED
JUDGE MANNING
MAGISTRATE JUDGE ASHMAN

DEFENDANT
MICHAEL F. O'LEARY

MOTION FOR A COURT ORDER
FOR PLAINTIFF'S PLACE OF INCARCERATION
TO ALLOW HIM ACCESS TO CIVIL LAW LIBRARY

NOW comes the plaintiff, in order to file his motion asking the court to grant his motion and order his place of incarceration to allow him full access to civil law materials needed to conduct this pending complaint under case no. 08cv2142. In support:

1. Plaintiff, shaunmatheny, is incarcerated at the will county adult detention facility and is not being allowed access to any civil law materials. Therefor hindering his ability to provide the court with memorandum of laws concerning any all motions that need such materials.
2. The will county adult detention facility has a computer law library holding criminal case law only, this facility offers no civil case law access to inmates, although there is a paper law library located in d-pod within this facility that requires inmates to have a court order in order to gain access and entry to these materials and the items are very old law books and there is no way for an inmate to gain updated civil case law inside this institution.
3. Therefor this facility does not have proper materials for the plaintiff to conduct his case in which verified by officials within this facility. Therefor denying the plaintiff his right to due process.

Therefor plaintiff is requesting this honorable court of the united states of america to fully inspect all said within this motion and order the will county adult detention facility to take the plaintiff, shaunmatheny, under case no 08cv2142, to a law library or institution that holds these materials and grant his motion for such a court order.

I DECLARE UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY THAT ALL SAID WITHIN THIS MOTION IS VERY TRUE AND CORRECT.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED
